Gov. Hughes Does not Follow up His Advantage.

Vote on Bunco Horse Game to Be Taken Wednesday.

Belief Exists That Bills Can Be Finally Passed.

ALBANY (N. Y.) April 2.—[Exclusiva Dispatch.] The failure of Gov. Hughes and his representatives in the State to follow up today the advantage gained by them last night in the race track fight, has placed those measures in jeopardy, though they will, in all likelihood, ultimately peas. As a result of the inaction of the Governor, and bungling in the handling of the measures in the upper house, a final vote on the bills cannot be taken until next Wednesday. This is precisely what McCarren, Grady, Emerson, Wemple and the other opponents of the legislation to stop gambling on race tracks played for.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) It is not likely that Joe Gans will figure as one of the stars in the first show to be given by the retired champion, Jim Jeffries, at Los Angeles during fieet week. Jeffries wried Jack McGuigan, manager of the National Athletic Club as follows:

"Have offered 80 per cent. for Gans to box Unholz twenty-five rounds here April 22. Unhols has agreed. See if you can arrange with Gans."

In his former telegram Jeffries offered 80 per cent. to Gans, but what he evidently meant was 80 per cent. for the bout.

Joe said that under no circumstances would he take on a big bout without a substantial guarantee. Gans intimated that $25,000 should be his end. IBY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

This is the Way to Keep Well without Cascarets

Live outdoors, and let your work be exercise. Else walk ten miles a day. Eat little meat, no white bread, no rich pastries. Eat many green vege-tables, plenty of fruit, and bread made of whole wheat. Do that, and you'll have little need of a laxative while you keep young. But when you grow old, and the bowels become less active, you will need this help anyway. Cascarets are for those who live indoors, who eat rich foods, who eat and drink too much.

This vegetable laxative does for them exactly what proper living would do.

So choose your own way.

Give Nature the aid of proper food and exercise, else the help of Cascarets. One way serves as well as the other. But som way is essential. For one can RACE TRACK VICTIM.

Because he had lost every cent he had at the race track, Charles Gold-run, 22 years of age, a traveling salesman for an eastern house, yesterday announced his desire to commit suicide. He drank a quart of whisky. The liquor gave him hysterics and hiocougha. Crying, moaning and laughing all at once, he was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

"Let me die," he begged, "I lost every cent I had on the races. I thought I could win and instead I lost all I had, including the money I had saved up. I want to die."

Burgeon Cook gave him a heavy does of bromide and put him to bed. He will probably recover. Goldrun is a native of Austria.

This unqualified offer at once removes our mining proposal from the horde of untried and often hopeless projects with which well-meaning men delude themselves and others.

WE HAVE THE GOLD, and we want your help in an undertaking that is more certain of success than any banking, commercial or manufacturing proposition can possibly be.

The Peruvian Gold Mining Corporation by owning eleven mines containing 284 claims, virtually possesses the whole of the immensely rich Nosiniscate Gold Piscers in the Department of Cusso. An official report of the mineral wealth of this district, issued by the Peruvian State Department, conservatively estimates the total amount of gold dust in is valley at $182.350.000.

If you know the history of Golden Pera, and the incredible wealth of her ancient rulers, you must realise that modern methods applied to these gold same totaling 40,000 square yards each of gold aring sand, averaging nine feet in depth, or over flowed in a steady stream from Peru to Spain.

We shall sell only enough stock to place one modern, thoroughly equipped gold dredge on this property, after which big dividends will be declared on all the stock sold and will be payable every three months.

By buying a share of stock now—on the ground floor—at 50c on the dollar, it is possible for one dollar to earn $36 in dividends.

A Well Established Case of St. Vitus' Dance Cured in a Short Time by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills comes pale and bloodless. A remedy that cures St. Vitus' dance, and cures to a week. She became thin and awit so thoroughly that no trace of the disease remains, is Dr. Williams' never would get well.

"When not quite seven years old, Nellie was taken with St. Vitus dance and was sick for over five months. She had always been heatthy and was and was sick for over five months. She had always been healthy and was never of a nervous disposition and I am at a loss to explain the cause of her sickness. When quite young she had scarletina, but had apparently entirely recovered from it. She began to complain during the early part of the winter, before her sickness, of chills and a numbness in her sides, but we thought nothing of it at the time. Later her teacher told me that Nellie would drop off to sleep in school and that she did not disturb her for she thought sleep would do find the best nerve food in the world.

Many a child has been called awkward, has been punished in school for not keeping still or for dropping things, when the trouble was really chorea, or St. Vitus' dance, as it is popularly called. So common is this nervous disease in childhood that in some schools one-fifth of all the pupils have been found suffering from it in one form or another.

Before the presence of the disease is betrayed there is usually a disturbance of the general health. The child shows listlessness and inattention. Then it becomes restless and twitching of the muscles and jerking of the limbs and body follow.

Often the patient loses flesh and becomes pale and bloodless. A remedy CITIZENS' NATIONAL BANK a severe nervous disorder show the power of these pills in strengthening weak nerves through building up the

A recent cure is that of the sevenyear-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
James E. Packard of Swayzee, Ind.
The facts in the case are known to every one in that little town where the family is well known. Mrs. Packard's account of her daughter's suffering and of her recovery follows;

"When not quite seven years old,
Nellie was taken with St. Vitus' dance

Develops Lack of Memory.

E. F. Sheldon, a witness for the government in the Oregon land fraud hearing before United States Commissioner Van Dyke, developed a remarkable lack of memory during his crossexamination, yesterday. On his direct examination he tried to give the impression that he went to Oregon to file on government land for the Pacific Purniture and Lumber Company. Yesterday he was unable to state positively whether he made the land entry for himself or for the company. He tried to explain various discrepancies in his testimony by asserting that he was badly confused by the rapid-fire questions of the attorneys.

While on the Vermontavenue job yesterday he was overcomed by a fit of weakness. Though diszy and almost blinded he managed to reach the ladder, and without assistance, descended to the ground. He then made his way downtown on a street car alone. He went to bed and had a physician summoned, but it was too late.

Stanislaus County

The County of Stantsiaus presents the homeseeker's opportunity. Situated in the center of California, comprising the outlet of the San Joaquin Valley, Stantsiaus posses exceptional advantages of location and climate. Stretching across the broad plain from the first rolling footbills of the Sierra Nevada mountains on the East, her Western boundary line rests on the summit of the Coast range. Modesto, her County seat, is but 115 miles Southeast of San Francisco, ninety-two miles North of Fresno, seventy-seven miles South of Sacramento (the State Capital), and thirty miles South of Stockton, the figures denoting distance by rail. Her area is 800,000 acres, nearly seven-eighths of which is arable lands. The Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe transcontinental railroads traverse the center of the County. A branch of the Southern Pacific skirts her Eastern and another her Western footbills. The Sierra railway, starting from the Eastern branch, at Oakdale, places the markets of the rich mining Counties of Tuolumne and Mariposa, and a portion of Calaveras, and the wonders of the famed Yosemite Valley, at her door.

The Stanislaus, Tuolumne and San Joaquin rivers, the two latter navigable for six months of the year, run through her acres, affording irrigation and drainage and serving to regulate transportation charges. Stanislaus presents the typical California climate, about the same weight of clothes being comfortable all the year. The climate is at all seasons of the year pleasant, healthful, and invigorating, and is especially suitable to the advantageous cultivation and rapid growth of the varied products of its soil. The Winter is short and mild. Snow unknown, frost infrequent, and rarely damaging even to tender plants and the susceptible orange blossom. Roses blooms in the open air as late as December and January, and in March resume blooming. In this gem of California counties a completed irrigation system owned by the land embraces 258,000 acres of immensely fertile and productive soil. The system has now been in successful operation but three or four years and over 75,000 acres have already been soid in small lots, most of it within the past two years. Probably 45,000 to 59,000 acres of his land is now cultivated to alfalfa, fruits, vines and garden products. No one can foresee possibilities of this section of California, under its present successful public system of irrigation.

Products.

The soil in these districts is a sandy loam, varying in density, but, all rich and especially adapted to 'trigation. It is highly productive, and as it varies in density is adapted to almost every crop that can be produced in the temperate and semi-tropic zones. This naturally causes diversified crops and every man can be suited. The man who prefers the dairy business, or the man who prefers the tree and the vine, the berry, sweet potato or the cantaloupe, can take his choice with the assurance of splendid returns. Here the oranges, choice fruit that to see is to covet, are ready for the Thanksgiving market; here lemons leave nothing to be desired; olives, almonds, prunes, vines and figs yield prolifically; pomelos (grape fruit), and pomegranate attain perfection; choice peaches, apricots and nectarines afford profitable crops; table and wine grapes meet every desire; while apples, pears and, in fact, all the deciduous fruits and garden and field products of every description are prolific in yield and from excellent to choice in quality. The demonstrated profits of the products we have enumerated, and of dairying, alfalfa under irrigation, affording green feed all the year around, led the land owners of the Central portion of the County to co-operate to render irrigation available to all. Two hundred and fifty-eight thousand acres lying between the Stanislaus and the San Joaquin rivers, and bisected by the Tuolumne river, comprise one great paradise of beauty and comfort. Products.

Water Supply. The Tuolumne river is the source of water supply for both the Modesto and Turlock Irrigation districts. This stream has a watershed second only to that of one other river of the State, carries a vast volume of water and is never falling, being fed by the perennial snows of the Sierras. The water rights of the districts take precedence over all Sierras. The water rights of the districts take precedence over all others, save that of a mining company, possessing a very limited ap-Water Belongs to Land. Here, under legislative enactment, the water inalienably belongs to the land. The water belongs to the people as does a public highway or school house. People who do not understand ask "What does a water right cost?" To which answer is made, "No more than you pay for the right to use the County road, the Court house or the district sche house. The districts were bonded to raise the money necessary to construct the irrigation works, and a valuation is each year placed upon the land for the purpose of lovying a sufficient assessment to pay the cost of the maintenance of the system, the cost of the distribution of the water, and to pay the yearly accruing interest on outstanding bonds. This method of raising money is practically the same as that employe in counties to raise money to conduct county affairs.

The practical utilities and benefits of the system under which thesi trigation districts are operated and controlled are apparent to anyon who will give the matter serious consideration.

The sandy loam of which the greater portion of the great body of 258,000 acres of land is composed affords every advantage for diversified farming.

ALFALFA—The King of Forage Plants finds its home here, yielding five crops of one and one-half tons to the acre annually, and affording pasturage after the curing season.

Dairying has become a very prominent industry, because of the favorable conditions and excellent profits. Each acre will support a cow. and one man at $40 per month will milk and care for thirty cows. Butter fat has been bringing at the creamerles this year from $7 to $15 a month per cow, according to the grade of the cows. The skimmed milk fed to calves and hogs will afford an income sufficient to meet expenses, leaving the returns from the creamery net profit.

Poultry is also becoming general and has already proven very profitable in these districts. This results from the mildness of the climate, the prevalence of green feed at all times, and the good local and San Francisco markets, in a short time will probably lead all other industries, even dairyli which has become and is now so profitable. Over ten thousand ach have been planted to vines since the completion of the irrigation system a portion of which came into bearing last year, producing from seven ten tons to the acre and bringing prices ranging from $14 to $15

Our Schools

Our Schools
have had a phenomenal growth in the last three years. This is especially noticeable in the Modesto and Turlock Irrigation districts, where settlement and development have made the most rapid progress. The County has four high schools, one being at Turlock, in the Turlock Irrigation district, one at Modesto in the Modesto Irrigation district, one at Oakdale, and one at Newman; and grammar schools at convenient places throughout the County. In the Modesto and Turlock districts there are twenty-three grammar schools properly and conveniently located.

It lies near the banks of the Tuolumne river, which is spanned at this point by a model County bridge of steel and cement. The assessed valuation of the real estate and personal property in Modesto is over $1,850,000.

Turlock is near the geographical center of the Turlock Irrigation district, and at the present time is rapidly growing.

Oakdale is an incorporated town of some 1500 population, and is a thriving business center.

Hickman and Montpellier are smaller towns. The line of railroad next farthest west from what might be called the foothills line is the Santa Fe railway, running from San Francisco to Los Angeles by way of Stockton and Fresno. On this line are the towns of Riverbank, Change of stockton and Freeno. On this one are the towns of Riverpank, Chang, Empire, Hughson and Denair. The latter two towns, with the assistance of the railway people, are making decided advancement and will soon claim recognition as among the first towns of the County. On the line skirting the foothills on the west are Westley, Crown Landing and Newman, the latter of which is a busy and growing town of some 1000 inhabitants.

You now have an opportunity to see for yourself the wonderful advantages of Sunny Stanislaus by joining the excursion which leaves for Modesto on Monday evening. April 6th, at 11:30 o'clock from the Arcade Depot, Los Angeles. A special rate of a half fare has been secured and you cannot afford to overlook this opportunity. For tickets and information see Geo. T. McCabe, Stanislaus Representative, Room 201 Bradbury Bld., 304 So. Broadway, or at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Tickets can also be purchased at the Southern Pacific office, 6th and Spring Streets, Los Angeles.

THE PIESTA SPIRIT.

The fiests spirit, that has characterized Dos Angeles from the day the old pueblo was born down to this happy hour when the great armada is about to enter our suniit harbor, is one of the best assets that a city could possibly have. All work and no play is no befter for a town than it is for Jack. If we grub and dig all the time and never take a holiday we are sure to become stale and to overreach ourselves. and to overreach ourselves.

"Drat these fiestss and celebrations, anyway; "Draf these fiestas and celebrations, anyway; they interfere with business," is what you will hear some people say. But they are people who are to be pitied, both for their lack of human kindness and their lack of good sense and judgment. A town that never has a frolic is as much to be dreaded as the man who never shakes his sides with laughter. A "no play" town is sure to become a "don't pay" town. The fact is that Los Angeles does not have as many fiestas as she Angeles does not have as many fiestas as she

The event which we are soon to celebrate The event which we are soon to celebrate should call out the greatest expression of the fiests spirit that the City of the Angels has ever known. It is an event that is pregnant with destiny. Next in its importance to the cruise of Cabrillo this cruise of the ships of Fighting Bob from the Atlantic to the Golden Coast will stand out in our history. And, leaving all that aside, it will be the grandest spectacle that has ever been witnessed by any man who sees it, no matter what he may have seen before, and though he may have sailed the seven Therefore, when the fleet sails with the slanting sun into the glowing waters of San Pedro, let us, one and all, throw dull care to the winds and have the time of our lives. Let us vie with the 16,000 sailormen who are to be our guests in making the most of the opportunity. Let us forget again, as has been our ancient custom, the carping cares of life, its dull monotonies, its troubles, and its disappointments. Let the ripples of our laughter keep tune with Old Glory as it ripples on the breeze. If your business interferes with your pleasure, cut out your business. Care is everywhere, but pleasure, like gold, is where you find it.

HOOSIER REPUBLICANS.

It is not thinkable that the Republican National Convention is going next June to Indiana to pick as party standard-bearer the elongated Hoosier who presides over the Senate. This is not a year for buttermilk politics, even although tempered with real cocktails on the side. Mr. Fairbanks is simply the favorite son of Indiana. He will get the State delegation vote as a compliment and there the Fairbanks boom will end.

ment and there the Fairbanks boom will end.

Passing this natural desire of the old Hoosier State to furnish the country with a President, we must say Indiana is setting Republicans elsewhere an excellent example. Other States have been as indefinite as a platitude about tariff revision.
Some have tried to commit the national convention to the proposition of nevising the tariff in a special session of Congress to convene immediately after March 4, 1909. The Indiana idea as expressed by Mr. Fairbanks is better—to do this revision immediately after the fall elections are over. The reason is that it puts the work of revision surely in the hands of a Republican Congress. Of course we expect the next Congress to be Republican, but we know this one is. Why commit the party irrevocably to a possible misnit the party irrevocably to a possible mis

Coming to the Indiana view as to the extent of tariff tinkering desirable at this time, we find everything in it to commend. The Hoosier Republicans are sound to the core on the protective principle. There is not a false note in their declaration. They go farther than a vague declaration in favor of protection as a general principle. They declare their approval in the main of the Dingley Act now in force. The present tariff schedules are the best ever known because the most protec-tive and because they extend the benefits of protection over all the important industries of the country. The farmers get the benefit in equal measure with manufacturers, and the duties are sufficiently high to protect labor in this country

The Indiana Republicans are worthy of imitation in what they leave unsaid as much as for what they say. There is no taint of Populism in the declaration of principles set forth in Indiana. Unfortunately that is more than can be said of Republican xpression in other States.

Mr. Hemenway, in our opinion, fell into an error of detail in his address to the Indiana convention. He went into a somewhat extended com-parison of the business depression under the last Cleveland administration and that of last fall. He took the defensive side of the argument. This is dangerous in politics. The party on the defensive loses votes. There is only one way to win. Let carping critics go unnoticed and make an agfight. The party has enough in its histor. to stand on, and the Democratic party has enough stumbling blocks in its way over which it has fallen in past campaigns. We must not stop to explain while they walk on ahead of us. The proverb, "Qui s'excuse s'accuse," may be unjust But it has practical force which no wise man will fail to note. The man on the defensive wins no battle. He must strike, not parry, if he wants to knock out the other fellow.

WHE BIDDLE OF THE AGE

The old question, "When is a door not a door?" has been superseded by the riddle of the age, "when is whisky not whisky?" Even the Pure Food Law does not answer the query, alough it makes a great bluff at it, while the cyclopedia Britannica frankly remarks: "It is not easy at the present day to define whisky."

Now there is nothing half so worrisome as an unsolved problem. People hate to give it up; they keep on going back to it to see if they cannot find the solution. And so it is with whisky. Some people stay with it all the time, determined not to be beaten, but they are frequently overcome.

If there is one nation more addicted to whisky than any other it is the British-which includes of course the Irish and the Scotch, the original makers of "usquebaugh," the water of life, which formerly was used as a medicine, but now serves to rob people of their brains. The British, being the largest manufacturers and the largest consumers, have suddenly shown a desire to know what is whisky and what is not, so their government has appointed a royal commission to see if it can find out. It seems impossible to conceive that there are persons more learned than the compilers of an encyclopedia, but these royal missioners rush in where the savants fear to tread. Well, here's luck to 'em.

While on the subject of spirits it may be remarked that many a worthy person who thinks it nothing short of diabolical for anybody to drink whisky will take a glass or two of gin once in a while just "for the stomach's sake." Gin is nothing while just for the stomach's sake. Oin is nothing else than a rectified and specially flavored variety of whisky. In its original state whisky is almost colorless, but it derives a reddish hue from the wood of the barrels into which it is drawn, the inner surfaces of which are usually charred to facilitate the coloring. There are tricks in every trade, and this British commission will probably bring out a number of facts which the composers of "blends" would rather have concealed. If the inquiry were likely | to result in a lesser consumption of the crime-pro-ducing liquid the commission would certainly serve a useful object, but to spend public time and public money on something that will have little practical result is an indication that British curiosity concerning whisky is of that unwise character which denotes too close a devotion to the object of solicitude.

THE WORTH OF WORK.

There is just one trouble with Alfred Gwynn. Vanderbilt, and the same with Mme. Anna Gould They have never found any serious work in life to do. Grim Tom Carlyle says, "Blessed is the man who finds his work in the world and does it." Dr. Isaac Watts's nursery rhyme, "For Satan finds some nischief still for idle hands to do," has more the world good and happy that we hear of.

The founder of the Vanderbilt family got into no scrapes and his life was free from scandals.
The old "Commodore" and his wife were as devoted as young lovers to the end of their lives.
They had plenty of work and they did it heartily.
The second Cornelius Vanderbilt, father of the young man who has set the world talking about him and his affairs, was not compelled to lead a strenuous life to preserve the family fortune. But he found work to do and did it. He was foremost in church work, and gave much time and money toward the betterment of those not so blessed with George J. Gould might have begun a life such as young Vanderbilt is devoting himself to, but he did not. He finds serious work to occupy his stime, and he has made of himself a power in the He bringing up his children well.

Helen Gould is disqualified by her sex from managing great railroad systems, but she has found important use for her time and money. There are probably few happier women in the country in "her single blessedness" than the country in "her single blessedness" than this inheritor of a great fortune, apparently con-demned to a life of idleness. She appealed from the sentence which her social position seemed to put on her, and is happy in absorbing occupation f a serious nature.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt saw nothing in the millions he got by inheritance beyond an opportunity to flit through the world as a gay male butterfly. Anna Gould married an idler for whose proccupied hands the devil found no end of mis-thief. She would have led a happier life along the paths her sister Helen is walking in.

Work no doubt makes the brain throb, the muscles creak, and the joints ache; but eight hours' peaceful sleep brings relaxation and power for another day, and all the time there is peace in the mind and joy in the heart.

HORRIBLE EXAMPLE.

A So many Americans let the idea run away with them that whatever is done in some other country must be admirable, if not perfect, always worthy of imitation. During the recent money troubles the country has been treated to no end of disquisitions on the beautiful financial systems our neighbors. Our nearest neighbor, Canada, has been held up to our admiring gaze perhaps as much as any other. All we had to do was to fol-low the example of Canada, and no Aldrich nor other financial emergency bill would be necessary.

But Canada is a horrible example. It transpires that the Dominion, under this "admirable system," was compelled during the recent flurry to issue fiat money, just plain notes, bits of paper, promises to pay, to the amount of $5,315,000. Note that this was done without one scratch of authority of law. We have had to do the same things ourselves, and it is to provide against illegal issues currency in the future that something like the Aldrich bill has been demanded by legislators, ankers and business men.

The Canadian banking system is admirable nary times, but in stress of weather like that of the three months, October to January, it was not sufficiently perfect to steer safely through the breakers wrecking banks and business houses. furthermore that the business people of Canada, bankers and business men, are now besieging the Canadian Parliament to pass a law in some respects similar to the Aldrich bill, which will give legal authority in similar circumstances to issue emergency currency amounting to $25,-000,000. On a per capita basis this would be equal to nearly $400,000,000 in the United States.

Now will the statesmen whose wisdom is all founded upon the doings of foreign countries and who have been clamoring against the Aldrich bill because Canada did not have such a measure in

A new city lighting company is laying gas mains by the mile, and an old one is about to extend pipes and wires into new districts. These two enterprises are employing a great many men.

Anybody can easily guess that Fighting Bob will make his future home in Southern California. This is the place God made for men who want to grow young after they have grown old. We are glad to learn that our German friends have about decided to raise the Kaiser's salary. He has earned the "rise" by no end of hard and faithful work in the interests of his employers.

Owing to the fact that Count Boni is the father of Prince De Sagan's future step-children, perhaps the Prince may yet find it in his heart to forgive and forget the spiteful spits of other days. In his speech to the Indiana State Republican ength." Antaeus may be a strong man, but he

HIS BARGAIN AFFECTIONS.

Check for Payment Held up by One Lady.

Other Lady Brings Suit, but Case Is Settled.

Innocent Reporter Cause of Disappointment.

What is the bargain-counter value of a husband's affections? To the great disappointment of a number of women in the Township Court yesterday, Justices Stephens was not permitted to make a ruling in the matter—and all because of a newspaper reporter. The ladies who crowded the courtroom expecting to be edified, went sadiy home to Long Beach no wiser than before On March If, Mrs. L. A. Runge was Miss Frances H. Parker of Long Beach. She has been married since then. But on St. Patrick's Day the then Miss Parker gave to Mrs. J. P. Sharp. also of Long Beach, and a dressmaker, a check for $251.75, drawn on the First National Bank of this city.

When Mrs. Sharp tried to cash the check she found that payment had been stopped. She st once started a suit against Mrs. Runge, nee Miss Parker, through Carl Monk of Long Beach, as but assignee.

The supposition under the circumstances was that this sum, which Mrs. Sharp claimed, was due for the trousua used by Miss Parker at her wedding, for the fluffy ruffles and lace lingerie. Not at all; it was for a husband's alleged affections.

"On ACCOUNT."

One curious feature in this mystery of a cheeked ochek suit is that after

"ON ACCOUNT."
One curious feature in this mystery of a checked check suit is that after he action was brought, but before the unswer of the defendant, Mrs. Runge, see Miss Parker, was filed in court, a cipulation was placed on record by which the plaintiff, Mrs. Sharp, actnowledges the receipt of $41.75. This art $250 even still due, and the suit as it went—and there was no delay in setting it for trial. Everybody "wanted to know."

Mrs. Runge, née Miss Parker, in substance stated that upon the date when the check was given to Mrs. Sharp she was living in the Sharp home in Long Beach and that on that date Mrs. Sharp secused her of alienating the affections of Mr. Sharp; that she made threats against her and that as a partial payment for damages to the affections of either Mr. or Mrs. Sharp: it is not told which—she gave this check for $291.75.

Apparently the lady decided afterward that the said affections were not worth even the reduced price paid by check, and so she had payment stopped. Later she paid $41.75. What further compromise there was does not appear on the court records.

As a matter of fact the case was in court for two days, but most of this time was spent by the attorneys on both sides trying to dodge a reporter who peraistently "butted in" on the trail of a story. As soon as the newspaper man would go into court the attorneys would est short proceedings, hold a conference, and then one of them would begin a long argument for a continuance of the case. Some important witness was sure to be relissing.

The reporter kept on the trail during

The outbound car was in charge of Motorman C. C. Patton and Conductor D. W. Clarkson; the inbound was manned by Conductor Dulledge and Motorman S. A. Hall. All are men of long experience in railroading.

mowledges the receipt of 341.75. This eft 1250 even still due, and the suit vent on.

The next chapter in this possibly-uppressed romance, masked by a heek held up, was when Mrs. Runge, see Miss Parker, filed her answer to he suit. It was a hot answer—so far it went—and there was no delay in etting it for trial. Everybody "want—dto know."

Anti-Saloon League Does not Accept as Final the Result of Test Election in Ventura.

The reporter kept on the case. Some important witness was sure to be reasing.

The reporter kept on the tatil during all these two days, till finally and with a grean yesterday afternoon the attorneys and the principals, with their counsel, retired to the privacy of some unknown and lonely spot. The surpense was almost more than the devoted spectators, who had spent two days and all their pin money for car fare, could bear.

WHAT ARE THEY WORTH?

After a time the attorneys and sadeyed plaintiff and defendant entered the courtroom and announced to Justice Stephens that it was "all off."

Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Runge, née Miss Parker, had reached as estitement outside.

Unless the Buffalo, which will leave San Diego today or tomorrow, can find room for the carload of oranges donated to the fleet by the California Fruit Exchange, the fruit will have to be kept for the barbecue here. Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday wired the captain of the Buffalo, asking if he could find space for them. Big Sunday Excursion

Delightful Trip Through the Orange Groves

Go with me next Sunday. Spend the day at beautiful Monte Vista. It is a tract of a thousand level acres. It has been held by a largestate for years, while all the country developed and improved around it. It is in the city limits of Ontario, lying 3 miles east a Pomona. It is in the heart of the best and most productive orange district in Southern California. Orange groves selling at $1000 to $2000 an acre surround it on four sides. Monte Vista is the equal of any soil and has a double supply of water piped to each acre All this for $250 an acre. It is only half a mile from the Citizens' and the First National Bank of Ontario.

Handsome graded and oiled tree-bordered boulevards lead into the heart of Ontario. Three packing houses are located the on the lines of the Salt Lake and the Southern Pacific railroads. School is only one block away. Churches, clubs, department store and all the advantages of a city of 6500 are close at hand.

No Pioneering and Soil That Raises Everything It is a rich fruit and farm section. You can make a good living there and grow independent on five acres. Potatoes, tomatoes, bear onions, berries, melons, table grapes, and all garden, farm and orchard products thrive there. Planted between the rows of a your orange or lemon grove, they assure a steady income while the trees are developing. It is a region where there is no frost, no sea and where failure is impossible. On account of the supreme excellence of the soil and the natural beauty of the situation, it is one the most thickly settled sections in all Southern California. The opportunity Monte Vista offers now to the homeseeker and tinvestor is one that never will come again, for there is no other such tract open in the midst of such superb values anywhere else

SIERRA MADRE, April 2.—A delega-tion of the Board of Trade, headed by J. W. Keys, president, and a number of citizens, appeared before the high-way-commissioners in Los Angeles, and way-commissioners in Los Angeies, anasubmitted a plan relative to the foothill boulevard about to be constructed.
Through L. C. Torrance, who acted as spokesman for the delegation, a showing was made on a plan drawn for the purpose, calculated to demonstrate that a better boulevard could be constructed by following along the line of the electric car tracks, and continuing through this city along Central avenue and on to Monrovia. There is a slight objection to this plan in the way of 'Lucky'' Baldwin, as he is desirous of having the boulevard constructed along white Oak avenue, so as to skirt his race track. The highway commissioners looked with favor on the proposition as submitted by the delegation from here, and will visit and make an inspection of the territory within the next few weeks. The plan as mapped

My Fee Only

I Cure Men

Men's Diseases

Free Consultation and Advice I will diagnose your case fre of charge. I will be perfectly frank with you and tell you honestly the extent of your allments, and whether or not you will be say or difficult to cure. The average case that other doctors pronounce hard to cure and many cases that have been pronounced incurable, I cure readily and permanently by my up-to-date methods.

Weakness

Weakness

My treatment for Men's Weakness has been invariably successful because it is a direct and POSITIVE.

One. You can readily understand why my treatment cures Westmess in men when I explain that this allment is due, in nearly every case, to an affection of the nerves of the prostate gland, or to a disturbance of the blood supply in this important organ.

To effect a cure, therefore, treatment must be given to the affected part. It must be local and direct.
Ordinarily medical methods are of no avail in such cases. The treatment must be specific, and it must be administered by the skilled specialist who understands the most must details of the case. In employing my theatment, there is certain to be effected a thorough cure

Varicocele

By varicocele we understand a twisted, hardened and knotted condition of the veins carrying the blood from the appendages. This is a very common complaint and is produced by varous causes. It seldom causes any rapid decline, but undermines insidiously and weakens the sufferer in both mind and body. The stagnant blood in the affected veins seriously interrupt the blood supply of the organs, and often is the cause of reflex symptoms which are not easily recognised. The ordinary physical in the cause of reflex symptoms which are not easily recognised. The ordinary physical had nown of the real ment. The sufferer must pay a good fee, besides the loss of time and the extra hospital bills. By my improved methods I use no knife, cause no pain nor loss of time from business. My treatment is scientific, thorough, permanent and never fails. It will pay every man suffering from Varicocele to investigate before considering other treatments.

Our Cure For We have the largest practice because we cure our patients.

"Weakness Punctional weakness, associated with loss of power and prematureness, is usually symptom-atic of some abnormal local condition in some power and prematureness, is usually symptom-atic of some abnormal local condition in some vital point of the pelvic region. Congestion, in-flammation and enlargement of the prostate gland; stricture, varicoccle, hydrocele, rupture, neglected or improperly treated cases of con-tracted disorders are the most common causes of sexual weakness. To attempt to cure weakness by stomach drugging or by wearing electric beits is just as sensible as it would be to wear a set of harness to cure corns on the feet.

Our treatment is entirely local. We first ascertain and then remove the cause, and there is invariably a speedy return of functional activity.
